Mary's song is the first proclamation of the Gospel of the Christ who comes to reveal the reign of God. Mary understands and declares what God will do in the child she will bear; she knows that, in the promise she has received from God, history is about to be turned upside down. Mary also realizes that she is herself the first instance of this upside-down history: She is the small one whom God has lifted up; she is the lowly servant on whom God has looked with favor. Mary embodies the good news she proclaims - the Gospel of forgiveness, humble service to others, justice and, ultimately, resurrection.
